Ministry is how God makes what’s true “of” us, true “in” us. Sometimes it’s only in the act of “loving others: that we can fathom that we ourselves are loved!

"For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Mark 10:45 (NAS)

GALLUP SURVEY: Only 10% of all laymen are active in a ministry. An additional 50% have no interest at all. BUT, 40% said they’d like to be involved but have never been asked or they don’t know how.

Discussion Questions:

1. How big a problem do you think feelings of inferiority are for most people?
2. Which “distorted mirrors” have made you feel less worthy or valuable than God’s evaluation?
3. What are you presently doing to gain God’s perspective of who you are? Any new ideas that might help?
4. What happens when we get our focus off ourselves and serve others? What and how might that look in your life?
